

LOVE, INSANITY AND A TRAGEDY DR. H. D. NILES MADE PRESIDENT

Henry Townsend Edson of New York Kills Mrs. Fannie Pullen.
Medical Association Confers Honor Upon Salt Laker.

THEN ENDS HIS OWN LIFE
FIFTH SESSION ADJOURNS
CONFLICTING STORIES REGARDING THE CAUSE.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Henry Townsend Edson, son of former Mayor of New York Franklin Edson, at his apartment at 20 West Ninety-second street today shot and instantly killed Mrs. Fannie Pullen, of 673 West Third avenue, and then shot and killed himself. The murder and suicide appear to have been premeditated, and followed a dramatic scene in which Edson called upon Mrs. Pullen, a close and honored friend of his wife and family to desert her husband and child and fly with him to another state. Mrs. Pullen, a very handsome woman, is said to have been the daughter of a United States naval officer.

The double tragedy brought to the surface the fact that Edson, who was "confidential" of St. Michael's Protestant Episcopal church and had been suspected of misappropriating funds belonging to the parish, and that expert accountants were at work on his accounts. It was also related by those related with the family that Edson was financially distressed on account of Wall street speculations.

In Love and Insane. Whatever may have been the precise cause of the tragedy, members of the Edson family insist that the man was insane. There were many indications that Edson was madly in love with Mrs. Pullen. On the body of the man was found the following letter:

Mrs. Pullen, Darling: Trust John implicitly. He will always be a go-between and faithful. I know him thoroughly. He will tell you where I am waiting for you, to see your sweet face once more before I go. I am going far, away, but will die true to you, no matter how long I live. I shall lead a new life, and in honest one, and if I can ever come back to you with my past cleared up, I shall, I swear, Oh, my God! let me see and speak to you once more before I go. I cannot go until you do. I hope and pray that you will put in today's personal. Anyway, I answered it in tomorrow's. I hope you see it. I cannot sleep. I can only pray and pray, and will come to me once more. Surely you will, after all you have been to me for the past ten years. You do love me, darling. I know you do. Come to me once more, darling, if only to say good-bye. I shall wait here until you come, no matter how long. John will tell you my hotel name. Ask him for me.

"Love Personal." The following "personal" was published in a morning newspaper yesterday:

By—John—nothing in answer to message be good to me, worried about you, send word today, just as true to you as I am, with love.

Following, evidently a reply to the message, appeared this morning:

John, I am waiting for you, to see your sweet face once more before I go. I am going far, away, but will die true to you, no matter how long I live. I shall lead a new life, and in honest one, and if I can ever come back to you with my past cleared up, I shall, I swear, Oh, my God! let me see and speak to you once more before I go. I cannot go until you do. I hope and pray that you will put in today's personal. Anyway, I answered it in tomorrow's. I hope you see it. I cannot sleep. I can only pray and pray, and will come to me once more. Surely you will, after all you have been to me for the past ten years. You do love me, darling. I know you do. Come to me once more, darling, if only to say good-bye. I shall wait here until you come, no matter how long. John will tell you my hotel name. Ask him for me.

The "personals" of St. Michael's church, the dead man's wife, Mrs. Pullen, and her relations, who were at the residence of Mrs. Pullen, at the Grand hotel, two children, Mary, 10 years old, and John, 8 years old.

Happy. The account of the break up of their home this morning as a result of an attempt to sign articles of separation, reached the public. The life of the couple had not been happy. Edson had been acting in a peculiar manner. For that reason furniture movers were in the house packing furniture and bric-a-brac.

Mrs. Edson spent last night with her friend, Mrs. Edson, who was about to go out this morning when a note came from Edson asking that Mrs. Pullen accompany him to where he was. Mrs. Pullen, his wife, Mrs. Pullen and Dr. David O. Edson, a brother of Edson, met in Edson's home. During the conversation in the dining room, Edson is said to have turned to Mrs. Pullen and suggested that she leave her home with him and go to some other state where they could be happy. Mrs. Edson was horrified. Mrs. Pullen turned away in disgust. Dr. Edson, after sharply rebuking his brother, returned to the room with him. Mrs. Pullen returned in a few minutes, when Edson again turned to Mrs. Pullen and began to entreat her to leave with him. Mrs. Pullen was horrified at the suggestion and, possessed with fear of the man, ran from the room. Edson, however, seemed to recover his self-possession and all went into the dining room again.

Afterward Mrs. Edson, who was sick and trembling from the ordeal, was taken to a neighborly home. According to Woods, a furniture man working nearby in the hall, Edson pushed Mrs. Pullen from his pocket and pointing it at Mrs. Pullen, shouted: "You must go with me. I don't care who sees me, I'll see that you go with me anyway."

Murder and Suicide. In terror Mrs. Pullen started to run from the room. Mrs. Edson, however, seemed to recover her self-possession and all went into the dining room again. Afterward Mrs. Edson, who was sick and trembling from the ordeal, was taken to a neighborly home. According to Woods, a furniture man working nearby in the hall, Edson pushed Mrs. Pullen from his pocket and pointing it at Mrs. Pullen, shouted: "You must go with me. I don't care who sees me, I'll see that you go with me anyway."

At the first shot Dr. Edson and Mrs. Edson rushed to the door of the dining room, reaching there just as Edson fired the shot which ended his own life. Mrs. Edson fell to the floor in a faint. Coroner Jackson, after making a thorough examination of the body, said that the evidence showed that the murder and suicide were premeditated; that he had found letters and other papers in Edson's possession which showed that he had had a love affair.

Mr. Pullen, the husband of the murdered woman, and who is a vestryman of St. Michael's church, made a statement tonight in which he branded Edson as a defaulter and forger and said that he had known from the time of Edson's church. He also declared that Edson had attempted to kill Mrs. Edson, but had failed and killed Mrs. Pullen by accident. Mr. Pullen's statement was not borne out by the investigation of Coroner's Physician O'Hanlon, who had examined the marks on the dead woman's face, showing that the pistol must have been held very close.

Mrs. Pullen Blameless. Dr. Cyrus Edson, a brother of the suicide, said tonight that the intimations of improper relations between his brother and Mrs. Pullen were absolutely false. He said that he had recently been seeing very strange things, and had admitted that he was involved in financial difficulties. He said that he had been in a state of mind so alarmed by his mental condition that arrangements had been made to have him committed to an asylum.

The shooting, Dr. Edson declared, was undoubtedly caused by insanity.

PAST DIFFERENCES HEALED
PARTY UNITED FOR VICTORY
NEXT YEAR.

Columbus, O., Sept. 2.—W. J. Bryan was the guest today of the Ohio state board of agriculture and this afternoon delivered a non-partisan address at the state fair grounds. John Clarke of Cleveland, endorsed the Democratic state convention for United States senator, spoke from the same platform. Mr. Bryan left late in the afternoon for Marion, Ohio, where he addressed a Democratic meeting tonight.

While in Columbus Mr. Bryan gave out the following statement relative to the endorsement of John H. Clarke for United States senator:

Bryan in Line. "I would have preferred the nomination of some one who had been active and earnest in the support of all the reforms of our platform, but the Democrats who endorsed Mr. Clarke, and after talking with him and listening to his speech last night, I am satisfied that his position is in line with the people in their fight against organized wealth, and that if elected senator he can be trusted to stand for the reforms for which the Democratic party is contending. As an evidence that his sympathies are with the masses, I submit to the fact that he has long advocated the election of a senator by a direct vote—a reform without which other reforms are impossible. He is opposed to government by injunction, and is in favor of a good test of his sympathies. He is in favor of an income tax—another proof that he is not the representative of plutocracy."

Clarke's View Sound. "His views on imperialism and the tariff are sound and on the line with the Democratic principles. The one difference between us is the phase of the money question, namely, metallic question, and on this question he was not given to me in error in 1896. But since that time the arguments made in favor of a larger volume of money have been vindicated. Believing as I do that his sympathies are right, I shall trust him to carry out the platform on all questions that come before him rather than give encouragement to those who would have him support a legislator and thus not only return Mr. Hanna, but prevent the enactment of needed state legislation. On the more acute phase of the money question I believe he will be found in entire harmony with the Kansas City platform of the Democrats. I cannot conceive of his supporting the money question in any other way, neither do I believe he would support the Republican measures which provide for branch banks and the issue of the silver dollar redeemable in gold."

Voted Right in 1900. "Mr. Clarke recognizes, as he said last night, that revolutions do not go by night. He recognizes that the Democratic party is marching forward to meet the issues presented by plutocracy. He is opposed to the scheme of the reorganizers. While we might prefer some other Democrat to him, Mr. Clarke must prefer him to a Republican who is against us on all questions, especially when the legislature that will elect him will also elect the people's party, cheaper railroad rates and more equitable taxation. To oppose him because of his action in 1896, in spite of the fact that he helped us heartily in 1896, in spite of the fact that he has supported Johnson in all his reforms, in spite of the fact that he is now helping us on everything except one phase of one question, and in spite of the fact that on that question he believes his opponent will lead him to our side when he thoroughly understands the subject to oppose him, is a very unreasonable and unjust."

Next Meeting Place Undecided. The selection of the next meeting place was left to President Niles and Secretary Moleen, with instructions to report within two months. There is a general feeling that the sixth annual session will be held at Ruit, Mont. The following physicians were elected members of the association yesterday: Clayton C. Snyder, Fred Stauffer, Joseph Richards, August C. Behle, H. N. Mayo, Union Worthington, Salt Lake City; C. F. Osgood, Morgan county, Utah; Leavitt, Denver; S. C. Eglehan, American Fork; R. C. Smedley, Brigham.

At the conclusion of the convention the doctors boarded a special street car at the city and county building, and went direct to the Garfield beach depot where they took the 4:30 train for Salt Lake. After a swim in the lake, many of the visitors returned to the city and caught the first train for their respective homes.

Three to devise ways and means for securing larger attendance upon future sessions of the association and a trip to Salt Lake.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are as follows: President—Dr. H. D. Niles, Salt Lake City. First Vice President—Dr. Robert Levy, Denver, Colo. Second Vice President—Dr. T. J. McKenzie, Anaconda, Mont. Treasurer—Dr. Donald H. LaMotte, Salt Lake City. Corresponding Secretary—Dr. Geo. A. Moleen, Denver, Colo. Executive Committee—Dr. C. H. Jones, Arizona; Dr. Ed Jackson, Colorado; Dr. J. W. Givens, Idaho; Dr. Donald Campbell, Montana; Dr. W. C. Hope, New Mexico; Dr. R. Henry Reed, Wyoming.

Routine Work of Last Day. The morning session of the last day was devoted exclusively to the reading of papers on medical subjects, and a fifth annual session of the association, was the discussion upon the very slight attendance, the advisability of holding meetings but once every two years, the election of officers and a trip to Salt Lake.

Rheumatism

Is Not a Skin Disease.

Most people have an idea that rheumatism is contracted like a cold, that the damp, chilly air penetrates the muscles and joints and causes the terrible aches and pains, or that it is something like a skin disease to be rubbed away with liniment or drawn out with plasters; but Rheumatism originates in the blood and is caused by Urea, or Uric Acid, an irritating, corrosive poison that settles in the muscles, joints and nerves, producing inflammation and soreness and the sharp, cutting pains peculiar to this distressing disease.

Exposure to bad weather or sudden chilling of the body will hasten an attack of Rheumatism after the blood and system are in the right condition for it to develop, but have nothing to do with the real true causes of Rheumatism, which are internal and not external. Liniments, plasters and rubbing will sometimes reduce the inflammation and swelling and ease the pain for a time, but fail to relieve permanently because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism because it attacks it in the blood, and the Uric Acid poison is neutralized, the sluggish circulation stimulated and quickened, and soon the system is purified and cleansed, the aching muscles and joints are relieved of all irritating matter and a lasting cure of this most painful disease effected.

S. S. S. is a harmless vegetable remedy, unequalled as a blood purifier and an invigorating, pleasant tonic. Book on Rheumatism will be mailed free.
